Personal Touch

Greetings all!!! What a couple of months it has been. Out here in the Sun Valley we have endured record temps (up to 120 degrees), gotten to see several of their local weather phenomena monsoon storms (AWESOME dust, electrical, wind and rain displays), have moved into our new home, and finally have it functional to live, work and play in. The views from all sides of our house include mountains and palm trees, and on one side of our house we have what they refer to as a green. A fully sodden (yes with real grass, sure do miss grass) area with trees, bushes and plants. We officially have our first two Arizona Premier daughters and another California Premier daughter and are excited about our Premier business. As summer ends and temps cool, the fall selling/serving season starts. I believe Andy says that 50% of all Premier sales are made in the last four months of the year.

If for whatever reason your business may not be where you desire, then NOW IS THE TIME to get on that phone and book those shows. We have a great product, guarantee, and hostess plan for folks to get tons of free jewelry for the holidays. We also have, in my humble opinion, the best Marketing Plan in the industry, and many families could use the extra income at this time. So not only BOOK, BOOK, BOOK, but SHARE, SHARE, SHARE!

We Really Do Care, Vicky & John

HAVE A NEW MINDSET

Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right, persevering, and steadfast spirit within me. PSALM 51:10

We set ourselves up either for misery or for joy by the mindset that we have toward the things in our life. Mindsets are the patterns in which our mind normally operates toward a certain determination. For example, when we look at our schedule today, it may seem that there is far too much to do. But if we choose the mindset that God will help us through it, we will enjoy watching how everything falls into place.

Refuse to dread what must be done. Greet the day with a right attitude and a thankful heart that you have a Savior who is ready to rescue you from more than you can handle. Enjoy yourself and say, "I refuse to live in dread, I am going to enjoy my life today."

Leadership Corner

As a young teen anointed by the prophet Samuel to one day become king, David patiently awaited his ascent to the throne. Both his influence and his skills continued to grow as he faced many challenges, reflecting the process all leaders must undergo in the leadership journey. David's honorable actions revealed his integrity and commitment to the legitimate holder of the throne, King Saul, "the Lord's anointed."

David refused to usurp power and grew angry when overzealous partisans murdered Ishbosheth in a wicked effort to speed up God's timetable.

By conducting himself in such an honorable way, he remained on solid ground. He recognized that by manipulating his way to power he would only break trust.

David's greatness and influence increased as those around him recognized he had committed himself to higher principles. He would not tolerate subordinates who felt free to take matters into their own hands. David sacrificed personal gain for those who sought to destroy him - a classic servant leader. He kept his heart close to God, and consequently his behavior reflected strong inner character and the utmost respect for God's timing.
